THE SHAKERS.

he Approaching Convention at Stein-way Hall-The Doctrines of Ann Lee To Be Fully Espounded-Interesting pies for Discussion.

A mystery has hitherto surrounded the Shaker ommunity, and, in view of the fact that their mission, ideas and religious belief are generally misunderstood, a convention is to be held at teinway Hall on Sunday next, when Shakerism, setinway Hail on countries and peculiarities, will be fully set before the public. Among other leatures to be presented, a Smaker choir of tweive leatures to be presented, a Smaker choir of tweiven the care of the meeting. Edder W. F. Evans will conduct the proceedings. They are truly a singular people, and it may not be inopportune, in view of THE COMING DEMONSTRATION.

METHODIST MISSIONS.

Yesterday-Devastations of the Grass-hoppers in the West-Suffering of the People-Methodist Fraternization in the South. This committee convened yesterday morning.

nop Andrews presided, and after the conduct of religious exercises and the reading of the the Conference was taken up and considered-abama received $8,500; Arkansas received $7,000, which $1,500 for transfers; Baltimore, $5,000, he second of these amounts is the same as granted ast year; the others are $2,000 less. California asked for $7,000, for which sum Dr. Gibson pleaded very earnestly. The Conference covers an area of three ordinary conferences, and had ex-tensive mission work. The committee approtensive mission work. The committee appropriated $3,000 thereior. Dr. Beid moved to combine the California German appropriation of $1,875 with this and have it all distributed by the California Conference, at its discretion. This was opposed on various grounds, and on vote was lost. Central filmois Conference received $500; Central New York, $800—being $400 each less than last year; Central Onio got $1,200—$800 less; Central Pennsylvania, $1,100—last year, $1,700; Cincinnat, $1,200—last year, $2,000. Colorado Conference asked for $1,000. There are but three fits tions in that Conference that pay their preachers a full salary. The church in Denver has seventy-ar tall salary. The church in Denver has seventywe members, is self-supporting and pays about half the missionary contributions of the Conference. The people are building churches as fast as they can, but are not doing much for the support of the pastors, and $7,000 is as little as they ought to have this year. A part of their territory

AS Lakin, pieading for Louisiana, said that he had been bushwhacked, hunted through the mountains and shot at in the South, but he had escaped. He believes that man is immortal until his work is done. There can be no real affiliation between brethren of the Methodist Episcopal Churen and the Methodist Episcopal Churen and the Methodist Episcopal Churen South, and the policy of the latter is to compel, by a Jesuitry peculiar to itself, the withdrawal of the representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Churen, whose milnisters go nownere unless they are wanted. The loyal people of the South must have the ministry of the loyal Methodist Episcopal Church, and it would be dishonorable to that Church now to back out of any piace where it has established itself. Ames church, in New Orleans, is the largest white church of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Louisiana. Its congregation, though large and respectable, is poor, and the church is in debt. The colored population of the State are building churches in warious directions, and they ought to have not less that $8,000, which sum was granted to this Conference. It received last year, $2,500, Michigao, $2,250; hast year, $3,750. At this point Bishop Peck resigned the chair to Bishop Haven. Minnesota Conference asked for $12,000, but Mr. Backman, who represented it, pressed for $10,000, the same as they had last year. Its contributions were larger than the year before. It received $4,000. Mississippi got $8,000. Instead of $9,500 grunted last year. Neoraska, a portion of the grasshopper region, asked for $10,000, an increase of $3,000. Mississippi got $8,000. Instead of $9,500 grunted last year, $1,500. Northwest Indiana Conference got $6,000 is the year, $1,500. North Carolina Conference got $5,000; last year, $1,000. North Indiana Conference got $5,000; last year, $1,000. North Methodist policians and proposed on the ground that those conference were receiving and from several quarters; but Chaplain Louier and Rev. A. G.
